

Mr Golden Africa 2013

First Pan Africa Male pageant, that seek to crown one male ambassador for the youth of africa

Mr Golden Africa the Annual Pan-Africa male pageant that represents a search for one male ambassador, which will represent the youths of Africa, who will help to minimise youths violence, HIV, prostitution and create self awareness amongst the youths of Africa, it will be a Headline Event. Our competition opens doors to a whole spectrum of intelligent and attractive personalities and future potential. The criteria for selection is not just striking physical features but includes Character, Heart and a strong Sense of Self; all of which radiate and is reflected on the model's outward appearance. At the end, a winner emerges and is declared the Mr Golden Africa.

We are presently looking out for an event management firm in South Africa to partner with, get in touch if you are interested.
