

The Lucky Lucy Fundraiser Concert with TACIT

TACIT is putting their soul-capturing talents together 16 February at the Jamrock Theatre in Brackenfell to raise funds for the Luck Lucy Foundation. Freshly back from over international waters the six musicians are determined to put together a phenomenal one night only show to express their support and help lift the financial burden on this important organisation.

TACIT has been dubbed by United Arab Emirates media as the best band in Bahrain, and possibly the UAE. Their music is a collection of passion, creativity and honed skill. It is influenced by various genres ranging from jazz, to rock, to blues. Every performance is a journey through some of the world's greatest music - reminiscing the classics from Bon Jovi; Queen; Whitney Houston; Bryan Adams; Michael Jackson; and Tina Turner to keeping up to date with the Top 40 such as hits from Lady Gaga; Maroon 5; Bruno Mars; Jason Derulo; Chris Brown; to David Guetta.

The Lucky Lucy Foundation is a non-profit organisation with a mission to relieve the plight of cruelly neglected and abused township and street animals. The foundation also aim to socially uplift and educate needy and underprivileged children and people around Cape Town. They have been improving the lives of animals and families since its commencement in 2010. Booking is essential as no tickets will be sold at the door. Tickets available from Santina at 083 703 4240. There will be a cash bar and guests are welcome to bring their own snacks or platters. All proceeds goes to the foundation.
