

New colleges on the cards

PRETORIA: Government has begun the process of establishing fifteen technical vocational education and training (TVET) colleges across the country, says the Presidency.

© HONGQI ZHANG – 123RF.com

The Presidency said Higher Education and Training Minister Blade Nzimande last week announced that a TVET college was to be built in Nkandla. He said this during the Jacob G Zuma RDP Education Trust Children and Youth Christmas Outreach Event held in the area.

The Presidency said other colleges will be constructed in the Eastern Cape in Graaff-Reinet, Ingwe in Ngqungushe, Ikhalala in Sterkspruit and Aliwal North.

Others will be built in KwaZulu-Natal in Esayidi in Umzimkhulu, Umfolozi in Bhambanana and Nkandla A and B campuses, UMgungundlovu in Greytown, UMgungundlovu in Msinga, Mthashana in Kwa Gqikazi, Mthashana in Nongoma and Mthashana in Vryheid.

Colleges will be built in Letaba in Giyani, Waterberg in Thabazimbi, while another college will be built in Mpumalanga province in Balfour.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>