

Last call for African Leadership Academy applications

Young leaders, aged 16 to 19 years from across Africa, are invited to submit their applications to participate in a unique curriculum at the African Leadership Academy (ALA) before 31 January 2016.

ALA identifies young leaders from across the continent with demonstrated leadership potential, a passion for Africa, an entrepreneurial spirit and a track record of community service and offers them a two-year pre-university programme.

The curriculum includes courses in Entrepreneurial Leadership, African Studies, Writing & Rhetoric and Cambridge A-Levels at its Johannesburg-based faculty. It offers a strong student-centred learning environment that provides young leaders with the knowledge and inspiration they need to develop as effective, positive-change agents on the African continent
