

LekkeSlaap.co.za receives Afrikaans support

LekkeSlaap.co.za, described as South Africa's first and only Afrikaans online accommodation site, has passed the 50,000 like mark on Facebook. "We are so proud, not only to have received so many likes from our Afrikaans following, but also to be able to show conclusively that Afrikaans should claim a proud place on the internet," says the site's marketing manager, Denise Neethling. The website was recently revamped. For more information, go to www.lekkeslaap.co.za.
