

Shift talk show goes live in Kimberley today

The educational talk show, Shift, will broadcast live from Kimberley today, Monday 30 July 2012 and tomorrow on SABC 1 between 1.30-2.30pm. The show will give young people in the region a platform to talk about their deepest desires to contribute to South Africa's democracy. It will also celebrate the achievements, lifestyles and unique culture of the province. Its presenters, Rhulani Baloyi and Aaron Moloisi will discuss issues affecting the lives of young people in the province, including Foetal Alcohol Syndrome (FAS). Viewers may participate in the questionnaire on Facebook or write to shift@sabc.co.za of the subject of heavy drinking and drinking during pregnancy.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>