

Kaya FM celebrates Global Entrepreneurship Week

As part of the celebration of Global Entrepreneurship Week (GEW), Kaya FM will run entrepreneur-based discussion on the Steve Backer show until Friday 16 November. Topics will include personal finance and the entrepreneur, technology and the entrepreneur, balancing personal life and a business as well as a panel discussion with Moeletsi Mbeki, Keith Brebnor and Pilisiwe Twala Tau. The GEW initiative kicked off in 2008, launched by former UK Prime Minister Gordon Brown and Carl Schramm, the president and CEO of the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation. Since then, it has grown to 115 countries with nearly 24,000 partner organisations planning more than 37,000 activities that directly engage more than seven million people.
