

Listeners to vote for their favourite radio station at Liberty Radio Awards

The 2018 Liberty Radio Awards' My Station category will have its winner decided by listeners as opposed to a panel of radio and media specialists.

The category consists of two sections for deciding a winner. The first section is the station that generates the most votes and the second section is the station that generates the most votes based on the size of its audience.

The event takes place at the Sandton Convention Centre in Johannesburg on 14 April 2018.

Listeners may cast their votes by completing an entry here.
