

SA designs adorned at International Emmys

Award-winning actress and Metro FM newsreader Vatiswa Ndara will be showcasing South Africa's top clothing and jewellery designers to the world at the 36th International Emmy Awards on Monday, 24 November 2008. Ndara, who had the honour of being selected as one of the international jurors for the Emmys, jetted out to New York this week. She is being dressed by designers David Tlale and JJ Schoeman and will be adorned by jewellery crafted by local designer Isaac Molefe, who is as renowned for his job creation and poverty alleviation projects. Dr Precious Moloi Motsepe's African Fashion International facilitated the designer sponsorship.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>