

Heart FM celebrates 21 years, makes new appointments

In celebration of its 21 years on the air, Heart FM made a number of changes to its off-air staff.

Denver Apollus has been promoted to head of radio innovation, he intends on using the programming and marketing departments to create content for listeners, whilst delivering on key objectives for clients in his new role. Vernon Carver will take over from Apollus as the station's programme manager. Nick Feinberg was appointed as the station's new creative director.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>