

Next Generation: Annual Report Hindsight

For the past 15 years, Next Generation Consultants has published an annual guide on the trends and forecasts for the social investment and development sectors in Africa. We'd like to share some findings from our report for 2018 in 3 parts: Hindsight, a look at the year that was, Foresight, an overview of what we predict this year and Insight, a collection of lessons learnt along the way. This is an overview of the Hindsight report.
