

FilmFest offers creative prelude to Design Indaba

The Design Indaba FilmFest 2013 is happening every evening at 8:30pm from 17 February to 3 March 2013, on the rooftop at The Bank in the Fringe District, Cape Town, as a prelude to Design Indaba.

Presented in association with DStv and supported by the National Film and Video Foundation (NFVF), the FilmFest offers fashion, music, dance, art and more.

A must-see on the programme is 'Big Easy Express', which documents the musical journey of folk rock and indie rock bands Mumford & Sons, Old Crow Medicine Show and Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros, as they depart on a "tour of dreams" on a train across America.

Morgan Spurlock's latest offering, 'Comic-Con: Episode IV - A Fan's Hope', travels with five attendees descending on the comic-lover's biggest annual pop culture event.

'Marina Abramovic: The Artist is Present' follows the quest of Abramovic as she transforms herself into a live form of art, challenging the audience and pushing herself beyond various limits.

The fashion editor of Harper's Bazaar, Diana Vreeland views herself as the one and only fashion editor. 'Diana Vreeland: The Eye Has to Travel', documents her life and her work, as somebody who defined style and beauty for a new generation.

The full schedule as well as ticket information will be released on www.designindaba.com/filmfest. Tickets at R35 will be available at the door.
