

Nou gaan ons lees... en kook!

Fresh Living, Pick n Pay's customer magazine has now been launched by John Brown publications as Kook en Kuier, as a direct translation. Justine Drake assumes the reins as editor of both titles and Riekie Cloete, current deputy editor of Fresh Living, taking up the position of senior text editor, to ensure the same quality and continuity.

"While we know Fresh Living has had many Afrikaans readers in the past, we're thrilled to be able to produce an Afrikaans magazine dedicated to this readership," said Drake. "It's our way of saying thank you for being such loyal readers of Fresh Living over the past years. Our promise is to continue to deliver fresh, inspiring and entertaining content."

Kook en Kuier launched the December issue on 19 November 2014, bagged with a Festive Season supplement. It is available at Pick n Pay and selected newsagents for a cover price of R19.90.
