"I was so excited when I received the call to say that I had won," he says. "I've collected a few of the Monopoly game labels already but never expected to win one of the three cars up for grabs, as I've never won anything in my life. My wife and I moved to the area two months ago with our two children and we've been enjoying a McDonald's meal at the Mall @ Carnival branch at least twice a week ever since."

McDonald's launched Mzansi Millions Monopoly on 30 September 2013 with a selection of exciting prizes on offer and a guarantee that all prizes will be won during the campaign, which ends on 10 November 2013.
