

Sahara Computers' Christmas competition

The Sahara Computers Christmas Carnival Competition is open for entries and closes on 31 January 2010. It is being run through retail stores such as OK Furniture, House and Home, Electric Express, Morkels, Joshua Doore, Russells, Price and Pride and Best Electric. Purchasing selected PC or laptops from its retail partners qualifies buyers to win cash prizes. The company's new range of computers based on Windows 7 platform offers value adds such as Microsoft Windows Live, Kaspersky Internet Security, Nero Express6 and a 12-month free Internet connectivity pack. Free additional hardware such as 3-in-1 colour printers, MP4 players, digital cameras and digital photo frames are aimed at enhancing the user experience.
