

Asata appoints Nivashnee Naidoo

The Association of South African Travel Agents (Asata) has named Nivashnee Naidoo as its professional project and programme manager.

Naidoo will be responsible for managing various government projects and implementing the processes and procedures related to the recognition of Asata as a professional body by the South African Qualifications Authority (Saq) in her new role.

Naidoo has 18 years of experience in in the travel, tourism and hospitality industries.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>