

Freedom Bash 2012

"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free."

Come join us as we unwrap the bondages of our youth, as we untangle the complexities that come with being young, as we break chains that control us and as we break free into a life of ultimate freedom in Christ.

It is in showcasing our talents and gifts that we are break free... Freedom Bash 2012 will be exploding with high energy, dance, music, poetry and everything else that young people are able to do...
