

Conferences about this and that

Why do we have to pay so much for something that is freely available online?

i'm always concerned with the amount of money charged by organisers of online this & online that conferences.

surely one can get whatever information that the speakers share with the delegates free/cheap online.

nothing is below a thousand rand on all these sessions...honestly this is a rip-off.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>