

LIA Chinese Creativity Show to recognise works in Chinese

The London International Awards has launched the very first LIA Chinese Creativity Show which will acknowledge works created, written, and produced in Chinese. Entries for the LIA Chinese Creativity Show must be submitted in Chinese by 31 July 2017 and the jury panel will comprise of Chinese-speaking judges from mainland China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Singapore, and Malaysia.

The first round of judging will be held in China in early September and the final judging will be completed with the rest of the LIA International Juries at Encore in Las Vegas between 1-3 October 2017. Once the Chinese jury has completed its deliberation, the winners will be announced at an awards show gala to be held in Beijing on 25 November 2017.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>