

Tickets on sale for 2011 Loeries

Tickets for The 33rd Annual Loerie Awards are on sale as of 12pm today, Monday, 18 April 2011. The festival weekend, hosted in Cape Town, will take place from 16-18 September. Tickets can be booked on the Loeries website via the new electronic booking system.

All ticket prices and seating information can be found at www.theloerieawards.co.za.

The awards, set to be a black tie event, will start at 7pm each night and will run no longer than two hours. The awards ceremonies will be held in the main auditorium of the Cape Town International Convention Centre, on Saturday, 17 and Sunday, 18 September 2011.

Official Party will include live feed

On Saturday evening a live broadcast of the show will run at a local cinema, where Official Party ticketholders will be able to watch the awards with a cash bar at hand. On Sunday evening, The Official Party will kick off at the Fez at the same time as the awards ceremony and will include a live feed.

Tickets are available for either evening, or a weekend pass for both nights (all tickets provide access to The Official Party on Sunday). The awards ceremonies are limited to 1500 seats, with a further 1000 tickets available for The Official Party.

- VIP tickets include access to the Mayor's Welcome Function, as well as all VIP areas throughout the weekend, during the awards ceremony and VIP access at The Official Party.
- Grand tickets are for the industry elite and include access to The Official Party.
- Student tickets are for students only. Tickets can only be purchased via educational institutions and seats are very limited. Educational institutions must contact the Loeries office to request student tickets.
- The Official Party gives access to the party on Sunday evening, as well as access to the live relay on Saturday evening.

All tickets include access to official functions, including the Battle of the Bands, Student Portfolio Day and The Official Party. VIP's will also have access to the Mayor's Welcome Function.

Cape Town Tourism is the official accommodation partner of The Loerie Awards. Accommodation can now be booked via their special Loeries site www.capetown.travel/loeries.
