

Get travelling, camping with Takealot.com

The online shopping portal, Takealot.com, has added two new departments to its offerings; Camping & Outdoor and Luggage & Travel, as it continues to scale its offering beyond 9 million products.

"We aim to carry the widest range of camping gear and outdoor accessories, with everything from tents, camping chairs and cooler boxes to hiking equipment, gadgets and serious outdoor survival tools," says Grant Webster, merchandise executive at Takealot.com. "Consider it a one-stop-shop for those who like to live adventurously."

The team is equally excited about having launched the all-new luggage & travel department, which sells an extensive range of travel products, from checked-in luggage and business bags, to backpacks, duffle bag school bags, leather wallets, purses and moleskin stationery items.

Declan Hollywood, chief marketing officer, commented, "The idea is to satisfy the customers every travel & outdoor need, with premium products at great prices, delivered nationwide. These latest developments add over 180 leading brands to our ever-expanding portfolio."
