Vacuum distilled at a lower temperature to make it a lighter and more delicate spirit, it is then aged in oak to give it a deeper, sweeter, soft fruit flavour, creating the perfect foundation. Carrying the traditional method blending passed to five generations by William Grant, Grant's Family Reserve continues to receive excellent reviews from around the world.

Enjoy the scotch this festive season, packaged in a limited edition stylish gift tin pack and a double glass set (containing Grant's branded tumblers) making it the perfect way to raise a toast on loved ones.

Available at selected liquor stores nationwide, retailing from R134. Grant's Family Reserve Whisky is not for sale to persons under the age of 18. Drink responsibly.
