

Baldwin for One Show

NEW YORK CITY, US: The One Club has announced that Alec Baldwin- funny man, actor, producer and spokesman- will be hosting the 2014 One Show.

This year, the One Show will once again be one show where all Gold Pencil-winning work will be awarded under one roof at Alice Tully Hall, Lincoln Centre on Friday, 9 May.

And after the awards, join us for the Creative Week Wrap Party at Capitale where there will be a dinner buffet, open bar, networking and music.

The One Club, producer of the prestigious One Show and Creative Week, is the world's foremost non-pro organization recognizing creative excellence in advertising and design. The One Show honours the best work across all disciplines, including Advertising, Interactive, Design and Branded Entertainment. Creative Week takes place in New York City every May and is the preeminent festival celebrating the intersection of advertising and the arts.

Don't miss our star-studded night. There are many competitions, but there is only One Show.
