

Huggies joins Mansfield in donating to Compass Charity

As part of its caring heart philosophy, Huggies joined forces with the Ballz Radio ONE Wingz of Change initiative to help make a difference in the lives of little ones from the Compass Charity organisation.

Together with Jeremy Mansfield of Ballz Radio, over 10,000 nappies were donated to the organisation that looks after 102 babies and children, aged between newborn - 17 years.

"One of my main wishes for the ONE Wingz of Change was to make an impact on the lives of children who are in need. Our thanks go out to Huggies that came forward to assist us in helping to ease the lives of these little kids who have sadly already experienced too many hardships," says Mansfield.

His show is on the X-stream Visual Radio platform, broadcast on weekends and it has a special feature called Jeremy's Wish, which works through ONE Wingz of Change, part of Ballz Radio's outreach programme to provide help to someone in need through the aid of the Mark Scott Trust.

Children from the Compass Organisation come from abused & abandoned, terminally ill, impoverished and previously disadvantaged backgrounds. "Children deserve to have special care and we are honoured to be able to make this contribution to uplift and improve the little one's circumstances," says Morne van Emmenes, junior brand manager for Huggies.
