

The Script to play South Africa

Irish pop/rock band The Script will be returning to South Africa in February 2015 in support of their new album 'No Sound Without Silence'. They will play in Cape Town on 4 February at the Grand Arena, GrandWest, Durban on 6 February at the ICC Durban Arena and Johannesburg on 7 February at Crocodile Creek.

Joburg fans are encouraged to tune into 947 music station on Saturday, 13 September, 2014, or find out more at Joburg Day.

The Script have sold over 20 million records worldwide with all three albums going multi-Platinum throughout the world. Hall Of Fame, the lead single from the last album '#3', was a worldwide number one single with over 5 million sales, 133 million YouTube views and over 100 million Spotify plays.

Their latest single, Superheroes, from their fourth album 'No Sound Without Silence' is currently in the Top 20 of the Kia Top 40 SA with iTunes on KFM and 947.

All the hits

Fans will be treated to an evening of all their hit songs including live, including: The Man Who Can't Be Moved, Breakeven, For The First Time, Nothing, Hall Of Fame, and more.

The Script will be supported by five-time SAMA-nominated, MTV MAMA award-winning band Gangs of Ballet.

Ticket prices:

- Cape Town: R325 to R530
- Durban: R295 to R530
- Johannesburg: R425 - R550

Cape Town and Joburg tickets go on sale on Monday, 15 September at 9am from www.bigconcerts.com and Computicket. Durban tickets go on sale on Monday, 15 September at 9am from Computicket only.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>