

Phillip Phillips to join The Script for SA tour

Phillip Phillips will be joining The Script for their South African tour dates in February 2015 in support of their new album 'No Sound Without Silence'. They will appear in Cape Town on 4 February at Grand Arena, GrandWest, Durban on 6 February at ICC Durban Arena, and Joburg on 7 February at Crocodile Creek.

One of the biggest singles of 2012, the quadruple-Platinum Home announced Phillip Phillips as a singer/guitarist to the world. Centring on the American Idol season 11 winner's rich, raspy vocals and masterful guitar skills, Home served as the lead single from 'The World from the Side of the Moon' - a Platinum-selling album that shot to number four on the Billboard Top 200 Album chart on its release in November 2012. His debut album, produced by Gregg Wattenberg (Train, OAR) also features the Platinum single Gone, Gone, Gone and Where We Came From.

Sales of 20 million plus

The Script have scored a huge amount of success globally by selling over 20 million records worldwide with all three albums going multi-Platinum throughout the world. Hall Of Fame, the lead single from the last album '#3', was a worldwide number one single with over 5 million sales, 133 million YouTube views and over 100 million Spotify plays.

Their latest single, Superheroes, from their fourth album 'No Sound Without Silence' is currently in the Top 20 of the Kia T 40 SA with iTunes on KFM and 947. The music video for Superheroes, directed by Vaughan Arnell, was shot in Alexandra, Joburg.

Fans will be treated to an evening of all their hit songs, including: The Man Who Can't Be Moved, Breakeven, For The First Time, Nothing, Hall Of Fame, and more.

Tickets are on sale now. Go to www.bigconcerts.com for more information.

www.thescriptmusic.com

www.phillipphillips.com