

Local comedy fest for Durban at Easter

An authentic, Durban-style comedy feast will be served to local comedy fans over the Easter weekend at Sibaya's iZulu Theatre - KZN's house of funny. Those appearing at the comedy fest, Curry Balls, include Jason Goliath, Nicholas Goliath, Neville Pillay and Masood Boomgaard, who will take the stage at 8pm on the 25th, 26th and 27th, and at 3pm on 28, March, 2016.

The Brothers' Goliath are known for their numerous TV appearances on Comedy Central and have appeared locally and abroad. They also recently performed to sold-out crowds across the country with their hit show Aweh Mzansi.

The comic explosion also features radio jock Neville Pillay and alter ego Top Dan and Masood Boomgaard who need no introduction to local audiences. Comedy fans are promised side-splitting laughter as the comedians offer their offbeat insights into life in South Africa, addressing stereotypes and relaying the joys and aggravations of living in the country's melting pot of cultures.

Tickets to the Curry Balls Comedy Festival are available through Computicket, Checkers and Sibaya Box Office and cost R120 per person.
