

SA's top ten Airbnb listings

With more than 2.3 million properties across the globe, Airbnb is known for the amazing homes that travellers can rent - from quirky and cozy to sleek and stylish. Picking the perfect place might be a challenge when you are this spoiled for choice, how do you find the best option for your upcoming holiday?

Airbnb's Wish List feature might help. Wish Lists are a handy tool that let users save their top picks, marked by a little red heart.

The top choice with a record-breaking 15,212 little red hearts from the community is Michelle's Camps Bay Mansion. Once you see the property, with its stunning sea view and amazing décor, you won't be surprised that this is everyone's favourite. In fact, Michelle's personal style and hospitality is so legendary that she won the "Unique Listing Award" at Airbnb's 2015 OPEN, the host event in Paris.

You can view the full top 10 most wish-listed South African homes here.

The majority of these hosts are Airbnb superhosts – which means they set the bar for personal hospitality extra high. After all, Airbnb is not just about the unique experience the hosts can help provide, but also about amazing properties all around the world.