

Marriott International opens seventh hotel in Algeria

Marriott International announced the opening of Sheraton Annaba, its seventh hotel in Algeria. The company already operates six hotels in Algeria - amounting to 1,580 rooms - and with another six under development, the company is set to double its footprint in the country.

Sheraton Annaba

Owned by Société d'Investissement Hôtelière, the imposing and welcoming Sheraton Annaba is conveniently located within easy access from the airport and the city's most charming attractions. With its iconic and sophisticated design, and appealing dining options, the hotel offers views of the azure Mediterranean Sea and the scenic coastal city.

"We are delighted to strengthen our partnership with Société d'Investissement Hôtelière, as we open our seventh Hotel in Algeria," said Alex Kyriakidis, president and managing director, Middle East and Africa, Marriott International. "The opening of Sheraton Annaba further underlines our commitment to growth and expansion in Algeria, a market which continues to be integral to our overall development strategy throughout Africa."

The hotel's 201 guestrooms, including 15 executive suites and a presidential suite spread over 18 floors, offer a premium Sheraton Signature Sleep Experience. Club rooms and suites offer exclusive access to the Sheraton Club Lounge, providing additional tailored services and privileges. Located on the 19th floor, the Club Lounge provides the perfect backdrop for a complimentary breakfast, tea, coffee, drinks or light snack to enjoy throughout the day and in the early evening hours.

Culinary experiences and delights

Whether it's relaxing at the Lobby Lounge while enjoying Sheraton's signature 'Paired' menu - comprising artisanal small plates and bar snacks paired with premium wines - or indulging a meal at one of the distinct restaurants, the Sheraton Annaba welcomes numerous culinary experiences and delights. Guests can relish international Mediterranean dining with live cooking at the all-day dining Feast, savor delicious patisserie at the Deli with take away, treat themselves to an upscale Italian dining experience at Al Pesto located on the 19th floor, or head for a relaxed drink with a game of snooker and some foot-tapping music at the Hugo Bar.

Business and leisure facilities

With over 1,400 square meters of ultra-modern and state-of-the-art meeting facilities, endless connectivity through high-speed Wi-Fi, and a full-service business center, the hotel offers highly flexible meeting options and personalized services, making it the ideal venue for every need, be it intimate gatherings or larger social events and business meetings.

Leisure facilities include a 24-hour fitness center for maximized workouts with cutting-edge equipment, an outdoor pool, a spa and an outdoor tennis court.

Situated on the north-eastern coast of Algeria, Annaba is the fourth largest city in the country and the capital of Annaba Province, often referred to as the “Pearl of East Algeria”. It is one of Algeria’s main commercial hubs and also a popular tourist destination known for its beautiful beaches.
