

New JHB summer concerts series; Large On The Lawn launches

Following its Parklife Festival, Breakout Management has announced its latest venture in collaboration with City Parks: Large On The Lawn, a summer concerts series in Johannesburg resembling Kirstenbosch Summer Concerts and Durban's Botanical Gardens shows.

Large On The Lawn will take place at the Golden Harvest Park in Randburg which is situated near the Northgate Dome in the north of Johannesburg. Established as a park in 1972, the 55 hectare grounds offer rolling walks around a dam and unspoiled, indigenous bushveld. Find out about more about the park here.

First lineup

Jeremy Loops and Matthew Mole are the first to grace the Large On The Lawn stage on Sunday 29 January. For the Jeremy Loops band it is the first time in nine months that they will be performing in Johannesburg with some new songs and a changed set-list. Afrikaans heavyweights Francois van Coke and Jack Parow will headline at the second instalment of Large On The Lawn on Sunday 26 February. Opening acts for both shows are yet to be announced. More announcements will follow for the March, April and June event lineups.

Gates open at 1pm, with the show starting at 2pm and ending at 5pm. Picnic baskets and drinks are allowed (no glass will be allowed into the park), so concert-goers can pack their own food and drink for a relaxed picnic setting.
