

International headliner DJ Superflu added to H2O Decade Decade lineup

The organisers of the H2O music festival have announced the third wave of performers set to take the stage at Wild Waters in Boksburg on 28 September 2019. International artist DJ Superflu will be supported by local headliners Abby Nurock, DJ Dizzy & Surge (Double Trouble), Lady M, Kyle Worde, Dirkie Coetzee, B-Type, Saubomb and Essential Groove.

The festival is known for its world-class lighting, production and insane sound rigs will boast a total of six stand-alone dance floors with a total of over 30 acts already announced. H2O Decade 2 Decade will be dedicated to the late founding member Paul Forbes.
