

GoodLuck set to return to the stage this weekend

For the first time since the Covid-19 lockdown was imposed in March, GoodLuck will be taking to the stage, or rather the rooftop, at Harald's Bar & Terrace at Park Inn by Radisson in Cape Town on Saturday, 12 September. The live performance, which is a celebration of lead singer Juliet Harding's birthday, will also be livestreamed.

"It's my birthday and needless to say I really need a reason to celebrate! This year has been tough on us all so I think it's awesome to be able to host a concert to remind us how life is meant to be lived - enjoying the best moments with the people who you love! I can't wait to connect with some of our fans in person again, it's going to be so much fun," says Harding.

GoodLuck will bring a limited group of fans a fully-fledged live concert production at the rooftop venue, with lighting and sound, pyrotechnics and FX.
