

eNCA news anchor Jeremy Maggs resigns

Jeremy Maggs, who has been in the media industry for over 30 years, has resigned from eNCA with immediate effect.

Image credit: teeveetee.blogspot.com

This comes 13 months after he stepped down as the television news broadcaster's acting editor-in-chief.

Maggs steps down due to 'stressful nature of the job'

4 Feb 2020

Managing editor, John Bailey told News24 that Maggs' resignation was an "employer, employee issue". Besides the notice issued to staff on Friday, no further information has been disclosed.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>