

Wildlife filmmaking course special offer

The Wildlife Film Academy has two places available on its next course, running 5 March – 4 April 2008 in Cape Town, and is offering a special discount to prospective students.

This one month intensive wildlife filmmaking course offers inspirational and informative wildlife filmmaking lectures by industry professionals. It includes a spectacular all-expenses paid fieldtrip to a premier game reserve to film African's Big 5, and the use of state-of-the-art editing equipment. Each student, under the tutorage of post-production experts, gets to produce their own five-minute short film.

The course fee includes: professional tuition, access to the latest camera equipment, a week-long location shoot, daily lunches at the academy, individual editing suites with the latest Apple Mac software, a list of key industry contacts, and assistance in organising internships after the course and in raising funding for future films.

Email or call +27 21 422 5363 to enquire about the course. Go to www.wildlifefilmacademy.com for detailed information.