

Shortstraw tour heads to Cape Town

Shortstraw has announced a tour that will see them play in Cape Town for the first time in two years.

Image supplied: Shortstraw will be performing in Cape Town as part of their Fine thanks, and you? tour

The concerts form part of their Fine thanks, and you? tour and are produced by Sun Daze - a team focussed on curating indie & alternative music shows in South Africa.

Fans can see Shortstraw play The District in Cape Town CBD on 1 April, and Beau Constantia Amphitheater Constantia, on 2 April.

In 2015, Shortstraw's album Youthless debuted at #1 on the SA iTunes Chart. They have performed with international stars including The Kooks and Bombay Bicycle Club.

Shortstraw's hits include Couch Potato, Find A Way (with The Kiffness) and Bikini Weather. Their new song, Okinawa, is now available on all streaming platforms.

The Fine thanks and you? tour to Cape Town features a dazzling array of supporting acts including:

- Crosscurrent
- Mikhaela Faye
- Year of Dogs
- Kloudink
- Sunshine Avenue
- Housewife
- Paradise Citizens
- Dirty Disco Records

Tickets are now available here.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>