

New publisher for *Classic Car Africa

Action Publications announced earlier this week that Cape classic car aficionado Fred Phillips has acquired Classic Car Africa magazine. The title has been part of the Action Publications stable since July 2004.

“We achieved what we set out to do in resurrecting Classic Car Africa over the past few years and this move will see the title into its next phase of growth,” Action Publications’ Michele Lupini added. “It also leaves us to concentrate fully on our core publishing activities in Cars in Action.”

“We look forward to the challenge of moving Classic Car Africa into a new era and look forward to focusir our full attention on growing the title,” Phillips confirmed.
