

Telecom Namibia donation to help empower women in business

Telecom Namibia has donated N$140,000 to the Namibia Businesswomen Projects with the goal of empowering Namibian women.

Senior manager of Corporate Communications and Public Relations, Oiva Angula, said: “This sponsorship is a re-affirmation of our commitment towards women empowerment. It is also a practical gesture of encouragement for the commendable work that the Namibia Businesswomen Projects have been doing for the past decade or so,” Angula said.

The annual sponsorship funds a wide range of projects, including the Katuka Mentorship Programme, Annual Namibian Businesswoman of the Year Award and bursaries for women in business-related fields.
