

SA plans biggest HIV campaign

South Africa is to stage the world's largest HIV and Aids counselling and testing campaign as the government embarks on a huge drive to contain the disease that is decimating the population.

Health Minister Aaron Motsoaledi told journalists in Parliament on Tuesday 10 November 2009, that the campaign marked the "dawn of a new era" for South Africa.

Read the full article

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>