

Celebs follow Zuma's lead

After President Jacob Zuma took a public HIV test in an effort to encourage his countrymen and women to do the same, local celebs are following his lead.

This week radio personality-cum-businessman Lupi Ngcayisa took a test at the Hillbrow Clinic and the king kwaito, Arthur Mafokate, is following the same path.

Read the full article

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>