

SA's Indian comedians celebrate 150 years

The arrival of Indians in South Africa 150 years ago is celebrated at The Lyric Theatre at Gold Reef City Casino by a new comedy show called 150 Years ... and still laughing!, which will run for three shows only on 23 and 24 July, 2010.

Featuring a line-up of South Africa's funniest and classiest Indian comedians, 150 Years ... and still laughing! is a production from the team responsible for Buckled and Queens of Comedy.

There is a combination of stand-up and skit comedy names, such as Riaad Moosa and Krijay Govender, Leeanda Reddy (Isidingo), Kaseran Pillay (Survivor - celebrity) and Mervyn Pillay (Amithab Buchan's friend).

The show takes place on Friday, 23 July at 8.30pm and Saturday, 24 July at 2.30pm and 8.30pm. Tickets are priced at R140 with concessions for early and group bookings. Book at Computicket or at The Lyric box office on +27 (0)11 248 5000. Go to www.goldreefcity.co.za for more information.
