

Bookmarks Week features workshops

This year's Bookmarks Week takes place 16-18 November 2010 with Cape Town hosting the awards ceremony. As part of Bookmarks Week, two workshops, in Johannesburg and Cape Town, will aim to provide the build up to the awards evening.

Organisers are urging the digital industry to support Bookmarks Week as "collaboration creates energy, and this energy infuses the industry".

The workshops aim to be more interactive than previous ones, facilitating intelligent debate and provide a space for learning and networking.
