

Nominations open for Southern Africa's top tourism leader

The Tourism Business Council of South Africa (TBCSA) is calling for entries for Southern Africa top tourism leader, who will be awarded at the fifth Hospitality Investment Conference Africa (HICA) taking place at the Fairmont Zimbali Resort in KwaZulu-Natal from 5 - 6 May 2011.

"The Tourism Leadership Award will recognise an individual who is making a significant contribution to the growth and development of the tourism and hospitality sector in Southern Africa," says Mmatšatši Marobe, CEO of the TBCSA, convenors of HICA.

She says entries for the award - nominations from colleagues or associates - are now open and will close 25 March.

The nominee must be an individual that has dedicated his/her life to investing in people and human development, capacity building and knowledge transfer, job creation, service excellence, industry development, environmental preservation, good corporate citizenship, sustainable community development, innovation, public/private partnerships and transformation.

Further information regarding the awards as well as nomination forms can be downloaded from www.hica.co.za.
