

NATIVE shows its digital roots

The team at NATIVE has recently launched a short video, documenting the team's role in shaping a small part of the history of the web in South Africa.[video]

The video outlines how the three companies of Cambrient, Stonewall+ and Brandsh have previously crossed paths over the past 15 years, as well as highlighting how key players such as Brent Shahim (Aqua Online), Arthur Goldstuck (Worldwideworx) and Tim Spira (FinMedia24) have played their own role in developing the industry to become the dynamic and vibrant space that it is today.
