

Bryanston Shopping Centre's Fab Food Fair

Bryanston Shopping Centre will be holding its Fab Food Fair, accompanied by lively music, from 28 to 30 July, 2011. A range of food, from stews, soups and fresh breads to nuts, popcorn and steak rolls will be available from 11am to 4pm every day.

Visitors can expect more than just a feast of winter warmers. Live cooking demonstrations by local chefs will take place daily and there will also be a wide range of cheeses and wines on offer. Toni's Café is hosting a wine-tasting evening on 28 July from 4 until 7 pm.

Dining and books to be won

Three lucky winners will be able to enjoy more fabulous food after the fair has come to an end. The first prize includes a dinner for six at Adegas Restaurant, plus signed copies of Zoosh, Faking It by Jeremy and Jacqui Mansfield and Cooked in Africa by Justin Bonelo. The second prize takes the winner and three friends to lunch at Living Café and includes signed copies of Zoosh, Faking It and Cooked in Africa. The third prize is a breakfast for four at Toni's Café, plus a signed copy of Zoosh, Faking It. Entry forms will be available at the Fab Food Fair.

There will also be an opportunity for people to win signed copies of Zoosh, Faking It by entering the competition at www.bryanstoncentre.co.za. Entries close on 30 July.
