One guest will win a pair of raw diamond chandelier earrings valued at R65 000, compliments of Aphrodite Diamonds. "We're setting the bar really high this year," said Red Carpet Concepts founder and MD, Jade Allen.

Proceeds from the charity fashion event will be donated to joinFITE (Financial Independence Through Entrepreneurship), a global women's empowerment organisation, founded by international skin-care brand Dermalogica.

After party

The online fashion superstore, Zando.co.za, will be exhibiting a sneak preview of its range of ladies' and men's shoes; and cellist Carol Thorns will be performing live, whilst guests enjoy complimentary drinks, canapés, and goody bags.

The exclusive VIP after party is taking place at Sandy B Private Beach Club with DJ Lady M and Anthea on the decks. The official Red Carpet Fashion Show after party is being held next door at the St Yves Beach Club.

Tickets are available through Webtickets.
