

Cosmo lingerie revealed

Cosmopolitan magazine's annual lingerie issue has been released and features some of South Africa's leading models, including Kerry McGregor, Kim Smith and Jemima Goosen. This year's lingerie supplement was shot in Milan and Tuscany.

Vanessa Raphaely, editor of Cosmopolitan, says: "The lingerie in the 88-page supplement is both sexy and sophisticated - lacy, silky naughty stuff great for Cosmo girls, and their guys."

"The lingerie issue is one of our best-selling issues each year and, judging by the enthusiastic response to the Lingerie Fashion Show at Cape Town Fashion Week, this year will be no exception."

A special behind-the-scenes look at the making of the Cosmopolitan Lingerie will be screened on M-NET 31 August at 10pm.
