

Nederburg Auction wine uncorks classic

The preview for the Nederburg Auction had media and buyers exalting over the Noble Late Harvests on offer, particularly the 1977 Vintage Edelkeur from Nederburg, one of 15 being offered.

Just two cases of the 375ml bottles, at a reserve price of R2400 per case of 12, will come under the hammer of auctioneer Anthony Barne MW on Saturday 29 September 2012. The Edelkeur is one of ten extraordinary wines included in the Private Collection category that opens Saturday's bidding floor.

Others include a selection of Weisser Riesling Noble Late Harvest, Semillon Noble Late Harvest and Eminence wines from Nederburg, as well as the Delheim Edelspatz Noble Late Harvest 2007 and the 200 Riesling Noble Late Harvest from Paul Cluver.
