

Wheelchair tennis forges on at Strand Tennis Club

Today is the last day of the Airports Company South Africa Strand Open, being held at the Strand Tennis Club, Cape Town from 9am to 4pm. The wheelchair tennis competition features some of South Africa's top ranked players in a contest sanctioned by the International Tennis Federation (ITF) and part of the NEC World Wheelchair Tennis Tour.

The ACSA Strand Open is a Future Level Event and seeks to give local players an opportunity to gain world-ranking points and experience in their own backyard. It also serves as a perfect environment to introduce new talent to international competitions and provide them with valuable competitive experience. Attendance at the matches is free.
