

Support act for Adam Lambert announced

It has been announced that KwaZulu-Natal's Toya Delazy will support Adam Lambert when he performs on 13 November at the Grand Arena, Grand West, Cape Town and 16 November, 2012, at the Coca-Cola Dome, Joburg.

Delazy's musical career started with classical piano at the age of nine and developed into her enrolling in the jazz programme at Howard College UKZN in 2009. After being discovered by Sony Music she released her debut album "Due Drop" in April 2012. Her first single, Pump It On, was playlisted on 94.7 Highveld Stereo followed by her second single, Love Is In The Air, which charted at number one on the Kia Take 40 SA chart on both Highveld and 94.5 KFM.

American Idol

Adam Lambert came to prominence following his appearance on the eighth season of American Idol. Although he was runner-up, Lambert launched a successful music career with the release of his first studio album, "For Your Entertainment", which debuted at number three on the Billboard 200, selling more than two million copies and reaching the Top 10 in over a dozen countries worldwide. The album achieved international success with its singles For Your Entertainment, Whataya Want From Me and If I Had You. His latest album, "Trespassing" (2012) entered at number one on the Billboard 200 album chart.

Tickets are available for both Cape Town and Joburg from Computicket.
