

Scan wins record number of EXSA Awards

Exhibition and display specialist, Scan Display, was delighted to receive eight Exhibition and Event Association of Southern Africa (EXSA) awards at the association's glittering year-end function at Monte Casino on Wednesday, 21 November 2012.

Issued by Scan Display³ Dec 2012

Six of the eight awards presented to Scan were for exhibition stands, while the other two were for exhibition infrastructure. In the history of the awards programme this is the greatest number of awards presented to one company in a year.

Scan won prizes in the following stand categories:

- Best Custom Stand (101-200m²): for the Armscor stand at AAD
- Best System Stand (51 - 100m²): for the Scan Display modulbox™ stand at Markex
- Best Outdoor Stand (outdoor category): for the Department of Environmental Affairs at CCR Expo, COP17
- Best Stand (external design): for the Evonik Plexi Glass stand at Sign Africa
- Best Green Stand (small, 9-18m²): for the Pfizer stand at numerous shows during 2012
- Best Green Stand (medium, 19-50m²): for the Department of Environmental Affairs stand at CCR Expo COP17

Scan Interactive, a JV between Scan Display and Interactive Africa, received the Best Green Show Award in the Outdoor Pavilion category, for the CCR Expo at COP17, and Scan On Show, a JV between Scan Display, On Show Solutions and Tau Management, was awarded Best Trade Exhibition in the 3 000m² category for Meetings Africa. These are the two awards where Scan designed and built the exhibition infrastructure.

Justin Hawes, Scan Display's MD, says: "We are overjoyed with this recognition, both for our design capabilities and our greening expertise. The Green Awards were new and Scan Display has been working hard to become a more sustainable business and offer clients sustainable solutions. It is really fantastic to be acknowledged in this manner."
